LEAGUE PRESIDENT SEES FISTICUFFS

Will Ban Atlanta Manager for at Least Three Months; Errors Cost
Local Club Victory.

BY RALPH MCGILL.

Birmingham made it dark for the Crackers beneath the blazing lights at Spiller field Monday night, winning, 5 to 4, in 11 innings of the most spectacular baseball seen in Atlanta in years. It was the city's initial night game.

There was no diathermic benefit from the lights for the Crackers. They lost Johnny Dobbs for at least three months when the puny and nerve-wracked little manager swung a right to umpire E. L. Goss' jaw in the second after an argument over a ball which Johnny Ryan, Cracker shortstop, hit under the sign board in center field with one man on.

The blow knocked the 200-pound umpire back on his heels and peeled the skin off where the knuckles struck, so sharp was the punch which the more than 50-year-old little manager landed. Dobbs said that he lost his temper when the umpire cursed him, using an unprintable name, in ordering him off the field.

Martin Sees Blow.

Baseball rules give the league president jurisdiction in case of an assault on an umpire but specify that he must be suspended for at least 90 days. The president may make it for the remainder of the season if he sees fit. John D. Martin, league president, was present at the game but left at midnight for Birmingham, delaying his statement until today when he will receive the report of the umpires and Dobbs.

Both men were given a copy of police charges and will be heard in court this afternoon.

It was a dazzling game, replete with sensational plays, brimming with excitement and keeping the big crowd of 10,800 paid customers on the edges of their seats all the 11 innings.

Both Pitchers Brilliant.

Johnny Morrison, the Cracker curve ball pitcher, and "Touchdown" Touchstone, the Barons' pitcher, both pitched brilliant baseball.

Errors, not due to the lights, lost the game for Morrison. Errors enabled the Barons to tie the score in the eighth and another error gave them their winning run in the eleventh. The play which sent Dobbs out of the game cost the Crackers two runs.

Ryan's ball apparently went under the score board. The four umpires claimed that it was a two-base hit under a change in the 1931 rules which declare that a ball which bounces out of the playing field shall be a two-base hit. It applies to balls which bounce into the stands or over a fence. The umpires applied it to the ball which rolled under the score board.

Ball Under Score Board.

Dobbs contended that the umpires could not see whether the ball went under or not and that the player, seeing he could not throw Ryan out, hit the plate, might have let the ball lie in the grass and fake a look under the fence. The umpires would not consider such a claim and this led to the fight. It also meant no runs for the Crackers.

Night baseball, however, was a decided success. The majority of the players liked it. Probably 10,000 of the 10,800 paid admissions liked it. Any faults found with it must be sought out in a spirit of stubborn and groundless opposition.

Roy Carlyle, the Crackers' slugging right fielder, declared after the game that he liked the night game better than the day. Roy Carlyle also approved it. Johnny Ryan, shortstop, didn't like it. Jack Sheehan withheld a decision. Birmingham players.

"Another Pint Case" Dismissed by Judge

MIAMI, Fla., May 25.—(AP)—William F. McCarthy, West Palm Beach, was called in United States district court here today to answer to an indictment charging transportation of one pint of liquor. "Is this another one of those one-pint cases?" asked Judge Halsted L. Ritter.

"Yes," answered B. R. Cisco, assistant district attorney.

"Dismissed," said the judge.

Harry Bernstein, Palm Beach, charged with transportation of three pints of liquor, also was dismissed.

U. S. CITIZENSHIP DENIED OBJECTORS TO ARMS BEARING

Professor and Nurse Lose to 5 to 4 Decision by Supreme Court After Applications.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—By a majority of one, the supreme court today decided an applicant for citizenship must take an oath to fight, if necessary, for the United States.

This conclusion was reached in the cases of Marie A. Bland, now in New York, Canadian nurse, and Professor Douglas Clyde MacIntosh, Yale theology professor, also a Canadian.

Justice Sutherland delivered the majority opinion, and Justices Butler, McReynolds, Van Devanter and Roberts agreed. Chief Justice Hughes read a vigorous dissent and Justices Holmes, Brandeis and Stone, often found together in minority opinions in the past, also dissented.

The government in opposing the naturalization of Miss Bland and Professor MacIntosh because they would not take an oath to bear arms in defense of the United States under all circumstances, said the question already had been settled by the refusal of the court to allow Rosika Schwimmer, Hungarian writer and linguist, to become a citizen.

Wouldn't Fight.

She also refused to take an oath to fight for the country. Justice Sutherland took the view the cases today were ruled by the principle laid down in barring her.

He quoted from the decision of Justice Butler in that case, on May 27, 1929, which said "that it is the duty of citizens by force of arms to defend our government against all enemies whenever necessity arises is a fundamental principle of the constitution."

Chief Justice Hughes said the cases hinged on the narrow point whether Congress had exacted a promise to bear arms as a condition of its grant of naturalization.

"That the congress has not made such an express promise is apparent," he said. "The question is whether that exacting is to be implied from certain general words which do not, as it seems to me, either literally, or historically, demand the implication."

Every seat in the court room was taken as Justice Sutherland began delivering the decision. His first words were low, but as he proceeded, his voice rang throughout the chamber.

Praises Sentiment.

"There are few finer, or more exalted sentiments than that which finds expression in opposition to war," he said. "Peace is a sweet and holy thing and war is a hateful and abominable thing to be avoided by any sacrifice or concession that a free people can make."

But thus far mankind has been unable to devise any method of indefinitely prolonging the one or entirely abolishing the other; and, unfortunately, there is nothing which seems to afford positive ground for thinking that the near future will witness the beginning of the reign of perpetual peace for which all good men and women everywhere never cease to pray."

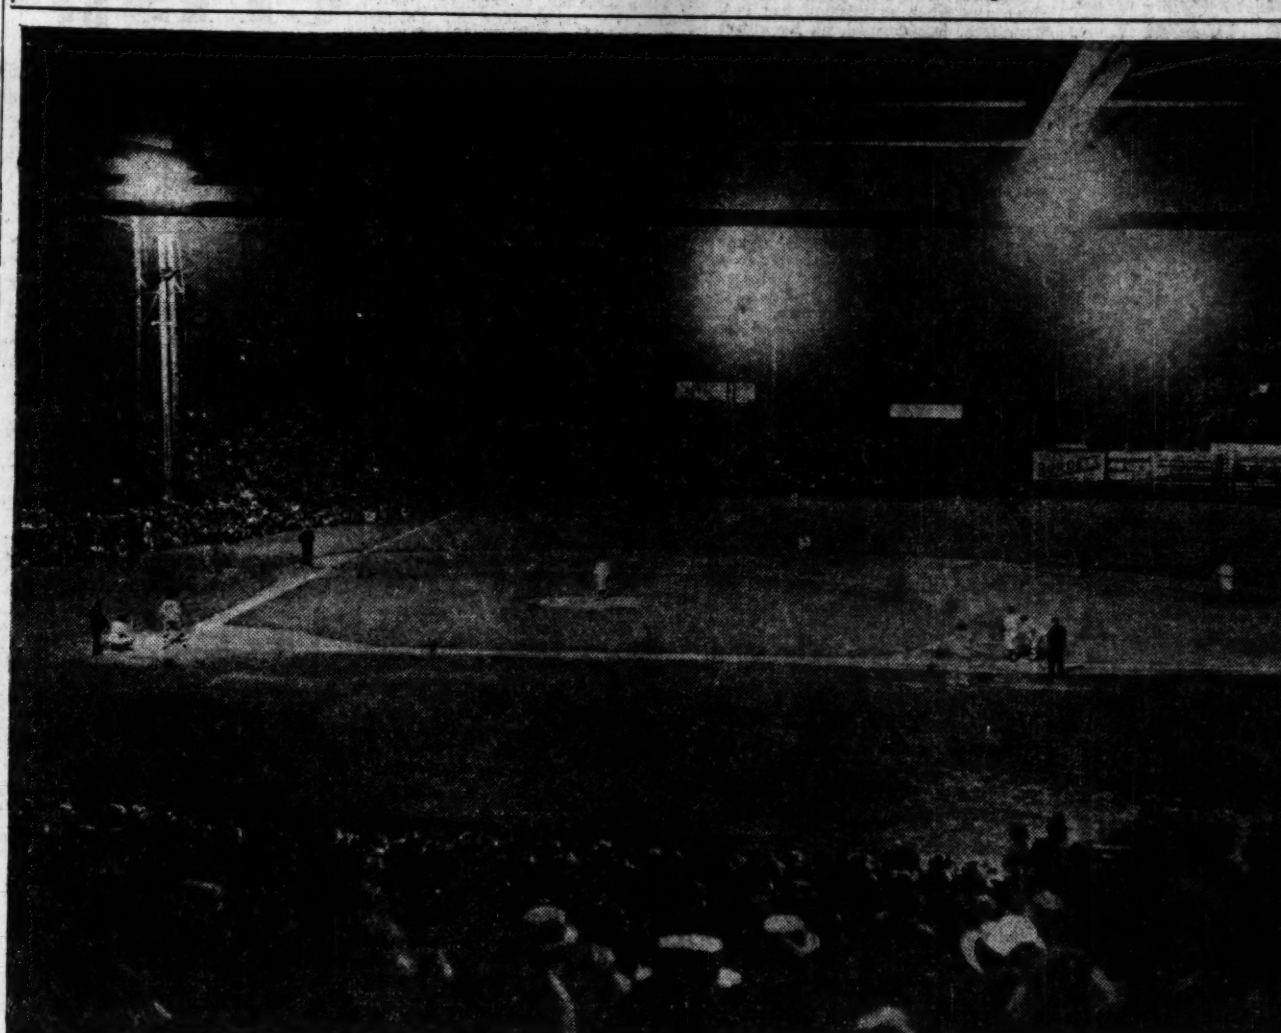

He said the war power tolerated no qualifications, or limitations and that Congress, not the constitution, had relieved the obligation of armed service from citizens who are conscientious objectors.

Chief Justice Hughes said the oath.

SCOTT FACES SUIT OF COMMISSIONERS

$100,000 Slander Action
Is Filed by Stewart and Etheridge.

Trammell Scott, defeated candidate for the post of county commissioner left vacant by the death of Ed H. Imann, was Monday named defendant in two suits filed by County Commissioners Paul S. Etheridge and Walter B. Stewart, in which they allege he slandered them in a campaign speech broadcast over radio. The damages asked total $100,000.

The two suits were filed at the same time and each gives Scott's alleged statement to which the two commissioners take exception. According to the suits the statement was broadcast over station WSB about 10 o'clock the night of May 16, while Mr. Scott was waging his campaign for election to the commission.

Alleged Statement Quoted.

The alleged statement is as follows: "Walter B. Stewart and Paul Etheridge are running George Longino in order that they may carry on their nefarious purposes. Do you know that they propose to barter the valuable almshouse property, the taxpayers' property, in order that Walter Stewart may participate in a $8,000 fee in the sale of the property? It is well known that when the property was appraised the appraisal showed a difference in value of $150,000 in favor of the almshouse property, and yet Paul Etheridge and Walter Stewart are trying to make an even swap. My goodness! Are the people of Fulton county going to stand for this?"

The section of this statement to which the petitioners are insisting on their reputations both as citizens and as members of the county board, is the section in the above paragraph which states: "Do you know they propose to barter and ends with the phrase 'of the almshouse property.'"

This statement both Mr. Stewart and Mr. Etheridge maintain has damaged the reputation of each to the amount of $25,000.

The same statement they allege has also implied that as members of the county board of commissioners they

'Stumpy' Seeks $5,000 For Injuries in Crash

J. G. (Stumpy) Thomson, former Georgia Tech football star, Monday filed suit for $5,000 damages against W. A. H. B. and Elsie W. Davis, as the result of an automobile accident which occurred at Lee street and Donnelly avenue early in May.

The suit, filed by Thomas E. Scott, alleges that Thomson was a passenger in a car driven by W. A. Davis. It is claimed that the auto was running without lights. H. B. Davis is named in the suit as father of W. A. Davis and Elsie W. Davis is listed as the owner of the machine driven by Davis.

Thomson was cut about the face and neck, the petition alleges.

Handling of Bandit Case Hit In Beavers' Attack on Poole

The long existing friction between Chief of Police James L. Beavers and Chief of Detectives A. Lamar Poole was emphasized Monday when Beavers openly charged that Poole was derelict in his duty in directing efforts to capture a negro bandit who for several weeks had terrorized residents of Ponce de Leon avenue. The negro was shot and killed Sunday night by Detectives W. J. Anderson and B. E. Blair.

Knowing that the negro had for nearly a month operated nightly along Ponce de Leon and having been instructed to post men at points of vantage along the street, Poole did not carry out his orders and the negro still would be alive and at large had not Detective Lieutenant O. B. Andrews taken charge of the situation and instructed Detectives Blair and Anderson to remain on the hunt until they had captured or killed the bandit, Chief Beavers charged.

Poole is not entitled to any credit whatever for the slaying, Chief Beavers went on. "Any credit for the work done by Anderson and Blair and to Lieutenant Andrews."

Chief Beavers asserted that residents along Ponce de Leon for the last six weeks have been complaining of the operations of the negro bandit.

GUARDS ESCORT NEGRO TO TRIAL

John Downer Removed to Elberton To Face Assault Charge.

In custody of national guardsmen under the command of Colonel Gerald P. O'Keefe, John Downer, negro brought here last Monday for safekeeping after a clash between civilians and militia at Elberton, was being taken to that place by automobile early this morning for trial on a charge of criminal assault.

Downer and three other negroes brought here from Elberton were turned over to Colonel O'Keefe at midnight by order of Governor Hardman, signed by Adjutant General Homer C. Parker, it was said. The other negroes taken to Elberton were Isaac McCaulley, C. Otis Cade, Frank Cade, Ernest Hill and Roy Huff, also brought to Fulton tower following the clash at Elberton were not affected by the order and remain in the tower.

The order giving the prisoners into the custody of the militia follows: "Military Department, State of Georgia."

"To the sheriff of Fulton county: 'Sir, you are hereby authorized to deliver to Colonel Gerald P. O'Keefe the following named prisoners lodged with you from Elberton county: John Downer (Downer), Isaac McCaulley, C. Otis Cade, Frank Cade, Ernest Hill and Roy Huff. By order of the governor.'

"Homer C. Parker, Brigadier General, Adjutant General."

Other negroes were being taken to Elberton for use as material witnesses, it was believed, as Downer was the only one indicted.

DOWNER TO FACE TRIAL
IN ELBERTON TODAY

BY L. A. FARRELL.
Constitution Staff Correspondent.
ELBERTON, Ga., May 25.—John Downer, one of six negroes originally suspected of criminally assaulting a 20-year-old Elberton county girl a week ago, was indicted by the Elberton county grand jury here today and will be placed on trial at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Downer will be brought here from Atlanta where he was taken for safekeeping last Tuesday, following a threat of mob violence.

Solicitor General A. S. Skelton, of the northern circuit, and the Rev. Henry Brookshire, Baptist minister, who quitted the mob a week ago, tonight were confident the negro will be given an impartial hearing.

Skelton stated that he knew of no request to Governor Hardman for troops, although he said he understood the matter had been discussed Saturday with the governor by Adjutant General Homer Parker. Court officials here also asserted guardsmen have not been requested.

"Everything here is quiet," the Rev. Brookshire said, "and I see nothing to indicate that there will be a demonstration of any kind."

"The people of Elberton county," the solicitor-general said, "want the negro to have a fair and orderly trial. There is no indication of trouble and I believe the case will be disposed of in a commendable way."

None of the other five negroes arrested at the same time in connection with the case will be indicted, Skelton revealed.

Whipped by Trainman, Boy Is Awarded $300

NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—(AP)—The Louisiana supreme court said today that a railroad brakeman had the right to police his train, but not to spank a passenger.

The court affirmed a lower court judgment of $300 in favor of Lionel Vinot, 14-year-old school boy, who was whipped by Edward Brou, the brakeman.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad, defendant, argued it was the brakeman's duty to protect passengers. Vinot was spanked for annoying a school girl on the train and threatening to kick the brakeman for remonstrating with him.

LYLE TO DEMAND OUSTER OF DOBBS UNLESS HE QUILTS

Chairman of Special Committee Asks Immediate Action on Letter From J. Charlie Murphy.

Unless Samuel C. Dobbs, chairman of the board of trustees of Grady hospital, complies at once with the demand of Provisional Mayor Pro Tem J. Charlie Murphy and sends in his resignation, the matter will be considered this week by a special council committee with a view of ousting Dobbs at council's session Monday.

Dobbs admitted Monday he had a letter in his possession from Murphy, then acting mayor, but declined to comment on it. The communication was dictated last Friday afternoon, but Murphy declined to make any comment, saying he did not wish to embarrass anyone, and furthermore refused to release its contents to newspaper men.

Lyle Announces Stand.

Councilman George B. Lyle, chairman of the council committee, charged with seeing that borough employees and others serving the borough live within the limits of Atlanta, asserted that unless the resignation is forthcoming at once, he will "be forced to submit the matter to the committee for a recommendation to go to council at its Monday session."

Alderman James E. Bowden and Councilman Ed L. Almond, other members of the committee, stated they would vote "to oust Dobbs or any other man serving the borough in an official capacity if it is shown that he is not a resident of the borough."

The demand for Dobbs' resignation is predicated on a council ordinance requiring all employees and officials to live within the limits of Atlanta, and on a statement which Dobbs filed with the borough tax assessors which reads: "I am not a resident of the city of Atlanta or Fulton county. S. C. Dobbs."

Made on Tax Return.

The statement is an inscription on his 1931 municipal tax return, and was made when the tax office attempted to collect an unpaid tax against him for the year 1930.

"I do not wish to hurt Mr. Dobbs or anyone else," Murphy said, "but I feel that he should be a resident to hold the position. I have no comment to make on the matter and will not give out the contents of the letter. I will say, however, that I did not demand the resignation. I had hoped that it could have been worked out without any unfavorable publicity."

"Our committee will go into the matter unless Mr. Dobbs resigns," Lyle said. "The matter is brought officially to our attention through the publication of the acting mayor's letter, which I am told was written last Friday. We have no other recourse than to investigate and if we find the charges are sustained, to ask that the post be declared vacant."

Other members of the committee concurred in this view, and it is probable that council will be asked to pass on the matter unless Dobbs quits his post in the interim.

Smith Favors "Good Men."

Three of the four other members of the Grady board were reached for statements but for the most part declined to make any statement.

John E. Smith, a member, stated

Eckford's Statement Unwarranted--Still

With reference to published statements concerning his attitude on questions coming before the legislature at its approaching session, Luther Skiff, representative-elect, said Monday:

"I want the public to understand when I get ready to make any statement of my position I will do so. I will give careful consideration to every question that comes before the legislature and at the right time will define my attitude. Until then any statement by others of my position is unwarranted."

The foregoing statement of Mr. Skiff refers to a story carried in the Constitution Sunday quoting Representative-elect George Eckford as stating that the Fulton delegation and its senator-elect from this district were agreed upon a bill altering the Fulton county commission. Mr. Eckford was quoted Monday morning as stating that it was likely that part of his statement undertaking to "present the views of my colleagues was presumptuous."

FINANCE MEMBERS TO HOLD MEETING WITH DELEGATIONS

Session Is Set Wednesday
With View of Raising
More Funds for Operation of Borough Municipal Government.

Assistance of the Georgia general assembly in solving Atlanta's perplexing financial problem—which now involves principally the raising of $490,000 in over-anticipations carried by the June finance sheet—will be asked at 7 o'clock Wednesday night at a conference at the city hall between the finance committee of council and the Fulton and DeKalb county delegations.

The meeting was decided upon at a meeting Monday afternoon of the borough committee, which reached the conclusion that unless necessary funds are forthcoming public schools of the city will be forced to close October 1 and other borough departments cease to function November 18.

Attempts to evolve means of raising $1,500,000 needed to finance the borough for the remainder of the year will be made at the conference slated for Wednesday night. Several plans have been suggested, but none has been decided upon. One is to levy a 10 per cent amusement tax, another to levy an occupational tax against persons working in Atlanta, but living outside the corporate limits, and a third is to raise water rates 50 per cent. Discussion of legislation involving one or more of these plans will take place at the meeting, it was said.

The committee Monday afternoon closed the sheet and fixed the meeting with the representatives after it was found impossible to bring appropriations within receipts without slashing salaries of employees.

Additions added to the sheet Monday were $15,000 to the wardens' office, $2,500 for playgrounds, $700 to the American Rescue Workers and $175 to Holmes Institute, the leanest June finance sheet ever adopted by any fiscal body of Atlanta.

"We just don't have money," Chairman J. C. Murphy told the committee when it assembled Monday morning, "and unless we get it we will be forced to ask city borough employees to work a month without pay or run a very heavy deficit."

He reiterated that statement when the committee met at the verge of adjourning Monday afternoon.

Atlanta schools lost another $148,000 Monday afternoon, which will make it even more difficult for the board of education to make a budget for operation for the year. The amount allocated to schools the first of the year was about $850,000 out of the "absolute minimum" according to school administration heads, and the $148,000 slashed Monday will bring the total to nearly $1,000,000, equivalent to about "three months' salary."

Air Armada Thrills New England As It Repulses Mythical Invaders

BOSTON, Mass., May 25.—(P)—New England thrilled today to the onrush of nearly 700 army airplanes that swept eastward to the sea from Springfield, Mass., and Hartford, Conn., to repel a mythical invader threatening the coast.

One group of 36 raced northward across Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont to the airports at Schenectady and Albany, N. Y. More than 600 others took part in a demonstration over Boston. The planes later flew back over southern New England to the four airports at Springfield and Hartford, at which they were quartered. But before the day was closed another aerial demonstration was given over Springfield. Old Boston cast away its tradition of aloofness as schools were closed and hundreds of thousands crowded the wide sweeping shores of Old Harbor, Dorchester bay. There, a crack group of pursuit, attack and bombing planes, 39 in number, roared through the sky in attack demonstration, low altitude formation, pursuit assaults on attack planes, bombardment formation as in bombing raids, pursuit attacks on bombers, high speed formation flying, and combat acrobatics.

The crowd remained to see the impressive 20-mile procession of 600 planes which came in from the west, just after noon. Later, those same thousands of watchers, attempting to return to their homes, massed themselves at park exits and subway entrances in what police described as the worst jam of its kind in the city's history.

Thousands of persons in downtown Boston failed, however, to catch glimpses of the mighty armada. They watched from office and shop windows and streets and listened for the sound of the fleet's engines, only to turn away, at last, in disappointment. Threatening weather reports, army air corps officers explained, caused a change in the original routing plans, and making it desirable to return the fleet to its bases as soon as possible.

One mishap marred the day's maneuvers. A pursuit plane nosed over in landing at Springfield. Lieutenant Curtis Lemay, of the 17th pursuit squadron, the pilot, said a locked brake on one wheel caused the accident, which damaged the plane somewhat. He was unhurt.

Boston experienced its worst traffic tangle. There were no fatalities, but scores were trampled upon, at least 30 women fainted and 20 were treated for cuts and bruises.

The general exodus of approximately 200,000 persons from the municipal stadium and adjoining grounds in south Boston caused a near panic. A crowd of 25,000 persons, many of them women and children, were caught in a seething, reeling mass of their own making as they were carried towards a comparatively narrow subway entrance at the end of a bridge. Police linked up the crowd, and assisted in bringing women who had fainted to first aid stations at the field.

Automobiles in the area were unable to move for about two hours while trolley cars stretched out for a mile, moving only by inches. Thousands were forced to walk back to the city proper to escape the crush. Conditions were equally bad at Andrew square, a mile from the stadium.

McKenney was not dangerously injured, hospital attendants said.

Attaches of the U. S. district attorney's office arrived in Atlanta Monday from Rome, where the federal district court has been in session hearing the criminal docket. The state stated that Judge M. John R. Hardie, of Gainesville, was ordered held Monday to the federal grand jury under a $1,000 bond, following a hearing before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith. Prohibition officers who appeared against Hardie at the preliminary hearing testified that he arrested him Sunday while he was transporting 100 gallons of whisky.

Six Shetland ponies will be donated by Mr. Burgess and Sheriff Jake Hall, it was announced.

Demonstrations and exhibits illustrating the work done at the school have been prepared. The occasion will be the last regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. C. O. Burns, president, announced.

The program, in observance of National Memorial Day, will be in charge of the public affairs committee headed by Dr. James J. Clark.

Abolition of one-man street cars will be discussed at the American Business Club meeting scheduled for 1 o'clock this afternoon at the Henry Grady hotel. B. F. Stovall will have charge of the program.

Five Atlantans will participate in the organization of a new and larger alumni council for Davidson College in a meeting at Davidson, N. C., next Monday. They are: Dr. W. M. Dunn, Dr. George McAllister, Scott Candler, Dr. E. L. Bishop and Houston White.

The Atlanta Saturday Night, a new weekly publication edited by Parks Rusk, former editor of Atlanta Life, will make its appearance June 6, according to an announcement issued Monday by Alvin W. Alsbrook, businessman of Atlanta and Jacksonville. The publication will contain a week-end summary of governmental and civic affairs, politics, sports, society, amusements, music, literature and campus activities, it was announced.

Determined Fight Planned For County School Bonds

Cam Dorsey, President of Education Board, To Seek Means of Calling New Election.

A determined fight to obtain the passage of the $500,000 county school bond issue, which was defeated Saturday's election because a constitutional majority of registered voters did not cast ballots, was indicated Monday in an announcement by Cam Dorsey, president of the county school board, that he would seek means of reopening the fight.

Dorsey said Monday afternoon that though there is at present no definite plan of action, he will present the matter before the next meeting of the board, which will take place the first Tuesday in June. At that time he will suggest that some steps be taken for the calling of a new election, he said.

He added that it was possible that a new petition will be circulated in the county to be signed by registered voters so that a new election may be called, probably for September. It will take the signatures of at least 25 per cent of the registered voters of the county, he pointed out.

"Something must be done for the schools," he asserted. "The bond money is needed badly. The situation is serious and I hope that something can be done about it."

The bonds were given a large popu-

"Murder by Walking" Charged to Husband

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 25.—(AP)—Police today arrested Edwin Lewis, 40, and charged him with murder, saying he forced his wife to walk 35 miles from Sanford to Fayetteville. She later died.

Mrs. Lewis was the mother of a two-week old baby. As officers sought to arrest Lewis, he drew a knife and stabbed himself. He was placed in a hospital. Physicians said he may not live. Sanford police, who issued the warrant, said Lewis walked here from Sanford to escape a vagrancy charge and made his wife accompany him.

lar vote in Saturday's election but the majority of registered voters as required under the state constitution failed to turn out at the polls. Only a few votes were lacking to make this necessary majority.

Jere A. Wells, superintendent of Fulton schools, stated Monday that the vote in favor of the bonds was such a large one that it indicated that the county wishes the bond issue passed. "The victory is a moral one," he said, "but that does not give the schools the money they need." He added that unless the bonds are put over in a second election or money is forthcoming from some other source the operation of the schools will be seriously handicapped.

"The schools are overcrowded now," he said, "and if the increase in enrollment continues on the scale maintained during the last few years, by September, 1932, we will be forced to teach double sessions in more than half a dozen of the schools." Walter B. Stewart, of the Fulton county board of commissioners, said that the voters' list should be purged. He said there were many on the present lists who have moved away or changed their addresses, and that that might have had something to do with the fact that a majority of voters were not at the polls to vote on the bond issue.

Official Returns. Official returns of the three elections held Saturday in Fulton county were announced Monday by Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries, following the consolidation of the returns in his office at noon.

They were as follows: For school bonds, 4,615; against school bonds, 971. For 2-1-2 mill school tax, 3,957; against 2-1-2 mill school tax, 930. For Fulton county commissioner: Sam T. Allen, 8; Dr. Luther B. Baker, 237; J. M. Barnwell, 62; Dr. George Brown, 229; Dr. A. H. Cochran, 21; Albert V. Curran, 20; Lee J. Howard, 150; W. L. Jones, 32; Thomas J. Lewis, 419; George F. Longino Jr., 4,720; G. Everett Millikan, 3,750; William D. Newman, 38; W. P. Rutherford, 60; Paul M. Sikes, 22; Trammell Scott, 1,692; R. M. Wiley, 25.

Although Allen and Dr. Cochran had withdrawn from the race, the former polled 8 votes and the latter 21.

SLAYING CONFESSED BY PUGILIST, WIFE

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., May 25.—(AP)—A purported confession of young Betty Howe, and her pugilist husband's statement that he would take all blame for the slaying of Joseph H. Horne here March 25 created a sensation as they were read into the records this afternoon at the Horne's trial for Horne's murder. "If he gets time, I want time too," she was reported in court to have told Sheriff R. C. Baker, "and if they kill him, I want them to kill me too." "I killed him," was the declaration attributed to Howe in a transcript of a conversation between the defendants and county officials at the jail here on May 6.

PONTIAC, Mich., May 25.—(AP)—Gerald F. Grandon, a teller at the Pontiac Commercial & Savings bank, was arrested today and charged with participating in the $13,000 robbery at the bank last Friday. The arrest was made after two youths, Adam Morgan and Louis Kish, pleaded guilty to robbery charges in circuit court, and Morgan made a statement implicating Grandon. The teller, Morgan said, provided the two robbers with a key to the employees' door and gave them a signal to enter after tellers removed money from the vaults for the day's business.

STORES WILL ENTER BIG COTTON CONTEST

Merchants Urged To Enter Competition for Window Display Prizes.

Representatives of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association of Georgia Monday began making the rounds of all stores in the business district which handle cotton in any form, urging that these stores enter window displays of cotton merchandise in the contest sponsored by the association during National Cotton Week, June 1 to 6.

Cash awards aggregating $1,000 have been offered for the most attractive displays.

That the program for a national celebration next week is receiving widespread support appears from proclamations already issued by the governors of Georgia, North Carolina, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Maine and New Hampshire, endorsing the movement, as well as action taken by leading department stores, mail order houses, chain stores and other establishments selling cotton merchandise of all kinds.

Request of Sears, Roebuck & Co. for 1,000 display posters to be used in all their stores has been filled, and A. G. Spaulding & Bros. have pledged their support to the movement. W. T. Grant & Co. are sending out pennants, posters and other promotional material especially prepared for their 385 stores.

"The essential effect of the Ultra Violet is the production of better tobacco and of cigarettes regarded by virtually all smokers who have tested them as milder and with a lesser tendency to cause throat irritation."

Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette that employs Ultra Violet Rays in connection with its exclusive "TOASTING" Process—the only cigarette that brings you the benefits of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos.

Red Cross Campaign Workers Confident as Drive Is Given Impetus All Over Atlanta.

Officials of the Atlanta chapter of the Red Cross were busy Monday afternoon supplying the membership "roll call" workers with buttons and cards when a letter arrived from Santa Barbara, Cal. It indicated that one prominent Atlanta citizen would not let absence from the city prevent his contribution to the Red Cross.

Payne, prominent capitalist and art lover, and it enclosed a check for $15 for 15 memberships in the chapter for himself and his children and grandchildren, all of Atlanta.

"I am here in a hospital trying to prevent my arthritis from getting the better of me," wrote Mr. Payne. "Far from home, only this morning I received The Atlanta Constitution announcing your drive for membership. I am a great admirer of the Red Cross. Though I never enrolled as a member, when calls have been made upon me I have responded. The tremendous power, unselfishly and charitably used, and the equally marvelous capacity of this society in administering relief in all countries has never seen its equal in the history of the world. I wish to place my wife, my children and my grandchildren upon the roll of membership and keep them here. I send my check, $15, which I shall renew annually."

"My relative, John Barton Payne, is at the head of the national organization, as you know."

"JOHN CARROLL PAYNE."

"Santa Barbara, Cal."

The Red Cross "roll call" was going on rapidly Monday, with the campaign well organized in the big corporations and industrial plants having numerous employees. Reports indicated excellent progress.

FARRELL'S CHARGE APPROVED BY DOAK

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—Secretary Doak today characterized as "very sound" the recent statement against wage cutting by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation.

Farrell, before a group of manufacturers in New York last week, called wage cutting "a pretty cheap sort of business."

"The statement by Mr. Farrell," said the secretary, "was very sound and came at a very opportune time."

"Many employers are maintaining wage rates throughout the country. This is very commendable."

"The Farrell statement was a proper one and came at a time when the matter was being thoroughly discussed and fitted in."

Business of Country Improving Gradually, Exchange Chief Tells Securities Officials

For the last three months business in the United States has been steadily improving and has now reached a definite, but slow, upward trend, Herman H. Petry, of the New York Produce Exchange, told the delegates to the eleventh annual convention of southeastern securities commissioners Monday.

Southern securities officials, and representatives of the New York and Chicago Stock Exchanges, will conclude a two-day meeting at the Atlanta Biltmore today. Monday night the southeastern group's annual banquet was held at the Biltmore.

Petry told the convention that every period of depression for the past 70 years has been of shorter duration than the preceding one. He said that figures compiled by national economists traced the beginning of the recent depression back to 1928 and that it had reached its low level before running the length of the 70-year average, less than three years.

Soviet Experiment Doomed to Failure, Baptist Believes

Although much interested in the Russian experiment, Dr. John R. Sampey, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, who is here to conduct a 10-day series of revival services at the Ponce de Leon Baptist church, is convinced that no government founded on atheistic principles can survive.

"I deplore the Stalin regime," he declared, "if only for the sake of one million members of the Baptist church, who are included among Russia's population. It is not pleasant to live in a country where religious liberty is not permitted. I acknowledge, on the other hand, that the abuses of religion under the czar was probably what drove the Soviets to the opposite extreme."

Dr. Sampey favors sterilization of criminals and the feeble-minded, as a means of protecting the race and of insuring it a healthier future. On the matter of birth control he is tolerant and admits that circumstances alter cases. His sermons each night, he says, will be based upon the gospel of St. John. The Rev. L. R. Christie is pastor of the Ponce de Leon church.

I. M. Bailey, president of the National Association of Securities Commissioners, was the principal speaker at the opening session Monday, responding to addresses of welcome delivered by Attorney-General George M. Napier, of Georgia, and Congressman Robert Ramspeck, of Alabama. Bailey said that as a result of systematic efforts carried on by authorities of practically every state in the Union it was becoming more and more difficult to palm off worthless securities.

"Almost every state," he said, "now has its security commission and its regulatory statutes governing the issuance and sale of securities."

"Much progress has been made since the first 'blue sky' law was enacted and there is no doubt that the investing public has been protected against hosts of unscrupulous promoters. It is not the purpose of securities commissions, however, to act entirely in the role of public guardian, but also to impress upon the investor the importance of investigating before buying.

Bailey, general counsel to the securities commissioner of North Carolina, said that in his state the radio had been effectively used to emphasize the necessity for careful investigation.

Mrs. Orrie De La Parrelle, secretary of the Georgia commission and vice president of the national association, presided over the meetings.

Other speakers included Charles E. McGowan, of the New York Curb Exchange; Harvey T. Hill, of the Chicago Stock Exchange; and A. G. Davis, of the Investment Bankers' Association.

Election of officers will follow the round-table discussion scheduled for 10 o'clock this morning, after which delegates will be taken on a tour of the city.

AUTO MISHAPS MAR JOURNEY OF MAYORS

Miss Ruth Key Presented With Shoot of Normandy Apple Tree.

DINARD, France, May 25.—(AP)—Three minor auto accidents, in which no one was injured, however, interrupted the journey of the party of American mayors today from Mont St. Michel to Dinard.

Two of the cars used to transport the visiting party ran out of gasoline and went into ditches by the roadside. A third broke a wheel just outside of St. Lannaire, forcing Mayor Victor J. Miller, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, of Milwaukee, and Mayor John C. Porter, of Los Angeles, with their wives, to walk a half mile to this town.

Ruth Key and Augusta Walsley, respectively, daughters of the mayors of Atlanta, Ga., and New Orleans, La., were given shoots of Normandy's famous apple trees to take home.

Normandy's proverbial bounteous cookery—tender young spring lambs nurtured on the salty marsh grass, grain-fed chickens done up in cream and all varieties of pastries—has been so effective that the mayors today were longing for simple lunches of ham and eggs and a glass of milk like they might get in the arm-chair restaurants back home.

The party will leave for Paris tomorrow, arriving there just in time to see the end of the opening of the American exhibit at the French Colonial exposition.

Mayor George L. Baker, of Portland, Ore., capped the climax of a gala luncheon to the visiting American mayors today at Mont St. Michel by adopting a 5 1/2-year-old French orphan.

Mayor Baker wanted to take his boy back to Portland but when he learned that was impossible he said he would send $50 a year to pay for the young fellow's schooling.

Henri Prince, representing Mayor Walker, of New York, followed the Oregon mayor's example and "adopted" another youngster, Guy-Marie Gontier, under the same conditions.

Louisville Banker Freed of Charges

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 25.—(AP)—James B. Brown, Louisville banker and newspaper publisher, was acquitted by a jury in circuit court here today of embezzlement of $2,000,000 on a note he gave a local broker which then was cashed by Bankers-Tuckey, Brown's holding company. The jury was out about 3 1/2 hours.

Eye Eye Madame

Lend your ears to this little story. The other day one of our customers wanted to pay for a purchase by check but discovered that she had left her check book at home. The section manager obligingly supplied a blank check, pen and ink and the lady was all ready to sign on the dotted line when she looked in her bag and found her glasses A. W. O. L. So off came the section manager's glasses to the rescue of the lady's eyes that "couldn't see a wink without them!"

It isn't a heroic story like the "days of old when knights were bold" and came riding to the aid of damsels in distress.

It's simply one of the dozens of homely little services we render every day—at Davison's.

LEGISLATORS OPEN ATTACK ON HORTON

Committee Sought To Consider Impeachment of Tennessee Governor.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 25.—(P)—Appointment of a committee to consider whether impeachment proceedings should be brought against Governor Henry H. Horton was sought in a resolution introduced today in the Tennessee house of representatives.

Under the rules it went over until tomorrow.

The committee would consider the majority and minority reports of its committee which investigated state affairs. Both reports were submitted today when the legislature reconvened after an extended recess.

The house, where such a move must originate, received a resolution directing the appointment of a committee of five members to consider both the majority and minority reports of the investigators and decide whether articles of impeachment should be presented. Sponsors of the resolution, which under the rules went over until tomorrow, announced it was signed by 44 representatives, or only six less than required to adopt it. The committee would report back Wednesday.

Both branches of the general assembly heard sharp attacks on the

Why You Should "Spring-Clean" Your System

Messed up all winter, without fresh-air exercise, and eating few or no fresh green vegetables, allows the system to become all clogged up—stomach, intestines, colon, liver, kidneys and even sweat glands—with poisonous refuse matter which must be cleaned out—your human "flues" unstoppered—else you feel slow, sluggish, dazed, no appetite or energy and sometimes ache in head and joints.

The "human house" should be thoroughly cleaned, just as you do the home, to make it more livable, and this you can best do with Jacobs' Laxative Salt, by simply taking two teaspoonsful before breakfast for several mornings. After the first dose you feel a pleasant sensation of returning energy and vigor, a clearing up of the head, a natural liver and bowel action—it thoroughly cleans the system of its winter accumulation of toxic poisons—and may be had at any drug store.—(adv.)

Looking At Life & The Changes

"Unemployment" Insurance

Three million unemployed . . . a most conservative estimate!

What are we going to do about it? Indiana and Washington are debating "unemployment insurance." Our national congress is discussing it. Relief measures of various kinds are being considered. Ten dollars per week plus additional $2.50 for each dependent member is regarded as the least that will sustain life . . . say $15 per week for a family of three. If each of these 3,000,000 unemployed had two dependent on him, we should need a fund of $45,000,000 weekly, just to sustain life in these 9,000,000 men, women and children.

But this situation, fortunately, is only temporary. It will pass. There is a permanent problem that is much more serious. This is the problem of the nearly half-million people who cease working, voluntarily, or involuntarily . . . "too old to work" . . . each year. They never will return to their desks or benches. They join the great army of the permanently unemployed. And of these half-million people less than 15 per cent have been able to save during their working lifetime enough to support themselves, however modestly, in the years following their retirement.

What's to be done about this? There is just one permanent, practical remedy. That is voluntary, personal "unemployment insurance"—insurance which is as certain as is the need that will develop for it in our old age.

The Pacific Mutual offers you many forms of such insurance, and happily they enable us, while providing for our own "unemployment" period, to also protect our family during our productive years. Let's not worry about unemployment . . . let's do something about it.

7 Distinguished Figures Given Oglethorpe Degrees

Mrs. Elizabeth Gilmer, "Dorothy Dix," as she received the honorary degree of doctor of letters from Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe University, at the graduating exercises of that institution held Sunday night in the First Presbyterian church. Others who received honorary degrees, from left to right, are: Dr. Albert Edwin Smith, president of Ohio Northern University, doctor of laws; Dr. Harlow Shapley, eminent astronomer, doctor of laws; Joseph T. Dendy, North Carolina minister, doctor of divinity; Fowler McCormick, son of Cyrus H. McCormick, inventor of the threshing machine, doctor of commercial science; Ivy L. Lee, publicity expert, doctor of laws, and Barron G. Collier, advertising man, doctor of commercial science. Staff photo by George Cornett.

65-year-old chief executive from members of the investigating committee. In the house George L. Stockton accused the governor of "absolutely falsifying" in a speech Saturday at a bridge dedication at Trotter's Landing, while Robert L. Alexander Jr. told the senate that the executive reported as a fact something that "never happened."

Stockton, in a fiery speech, shouted that "when the chief executive of the state of Tennessee falsifies himself, it is high time for the people to rise and demand removal from office of a man so low as to falsify this committee which worked day and night in its investigation of state conditions." Both Alexander and Stockton referred to a remark attributed to the governor that Frank Rice, aid of Congressman E. H. Crump, Memphis political leader, and announced foe of the governor, had been permitted in executive meetings to which some of the committeemen themselves were not allowed.

Committee Criticized. The investigating committee itself came in for criticism at the hands of Representative Grover Harris, who said he planned to introduce a resolution providing for an investigation of the investigators.

"If rumors are true," he told newspapermen, "I feel like the conduct of at least some members of the committee should be investigated. I believe that the people of Tennessee are entitled to know what has been going on behind closed doors."

The state affairs investigation, directly resulting from the failure of several banks in which Colonel Luke Lea, publisher-politician, and Rogers Caldwell, financier, was interested, causing the tie-up of nearly $7,000,000 of public moneys, lasted for four months.

Both Lea and Caldwell were credited with powerful influence with the state administration in the investigating committee's majority report, which, among other things, said: "High state officials were discharged because they would not conduct their offices in a way satisfactory to Lea and Caldwell."

The report also reviewed testimony to the effect that "the governor appointed a superintendent of banks whom he had never met until the applicant was brought to his mansion by Colonel Luke Lea for appointment, and the day before the Bank of Tennessee (a Caldwell institution) was to be examined in September, 1930, by the banking department, its officers in control were given notice by the said Colonel Luke Lea of said intended examination so that they could make temporary repairs."

Minority members of the committee criticized the way in which the investigation was conducted, especially the committee's refusal to hear testimony refuting statements made at the public hearings. They charged the majority members with seeking only "such facts, hearsays, suspicions and conclusions" that would promote "their plan to compel certain public officials to stand public trial."

Members of the Shelby county (Memphis) delegation, sponsors of the resolution for appointment of a committee to decide whether impeachment proceedings were warranted, said the house would be "certain" to vote for impeachment. Administration proponents, however, refused to concede the anti-administrators a house majority. Crump looked in on the house proceedings for a few minutes.

EX-BROKER CHARGED WITH $250,000 FRAUD
NEW YORK, May 25.—(P)—James M. Fairbanks, 36, of Westfield, N. J., former manager of the office of Tucker, Anthony and Company, stock exchange members of 120 Broadway, was arrested today on complaint of his former employers who charged Fairbanks had defrauded them of $250,000.

SUPREME COURT WAITS FALL PLEA

Decks Cleared To Receive Petition To Set Aside Bribe Conviction.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(P)—The supreme court today cleared the way for action on any petition which Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, may file before Friday, seeking to set aside his conviction of accepting a bribe in the naval oil reserve leases and his sentence of one year in prison and a fine of $100,000.

When the court of appeals here sustained the trial court, counsel for Fall obtained a stay out of the mandate so that he would not be committed to the penitentiary pending the filing of a petition for review by the United States supreme court.

The stay expires this week, and it is expected Fall's petition will be filed in a day or two.

Expecting that the petition would remain unacted on by the court until it begins its next term in October, Solicitor-General Thatcher today asked the court to waive an order announcing that no petitions for review could be submitted to it at the present term after today.

He also asked the court to permit the clerk as soon as the petition is filed, to submit it to members of the court so that it might on next Monday indicate whether the review will be granted. The request was granted.

Should the review be denied, as the government expects, the celebrated case would be brought to an end, and only the pardoning power of the president could prevent the commitment of Fall to serve his prison sentence.

Aviatrix Joins
Flyer Planning
Hop Over Pacific

TOKYO, May 25.—(P)—Ruth Barron, aviatrix, of Nyack, N. Y., today joined the entourage of Thomas Ash Jr., American aviator preparing here for a non-stop flight across the Pacific.

Miss Barron in the next few days will fly with Ash from Tachikawa airbase, near here, to Samushiro Beach, on the northern coast of Honshu Island, where the take-off will be made.

Miss Barron counts among her ancestors Commander James Barron, U. S. N., who killed Stephen Decatur, American naval hero, in a duel. Ash expects to follow the Great Circle steamship route from Japan to Seattle, about 4,400 miles, and hopes to complete the flight in 40 to 50 hours. Upon reaching the United States he expects to hop for Enfield, Conn., to meet his father, Thomas Ash Sr., and make a flight to Southern California.

Plane Speed Record Unofficially Broken

CALSHOT, England, May 25.—(P)—The world's airplane speed record of 357 miles per hour, made by Squadron Leader August H. Orlebar in 1929, was reported today to have been broken several times by pilots in training for the Schneider cup races.

While the figures have not been given out, it was understood that pilots exceeded 360 miles per hour while driving racing seaplanes in trial flights.

FASCISTS BEAT PAPAL EMPLOYEE

ROME, May 25.—(UP)—The driver of a Vatican City mail truck was beaten and injured on Sunday by fascists who were angered because he failed to halt during a fascist parade.

A fascist militia officer also slapped the face of the assistant to the mail truck driver.

The arm of the driver was injured. The motor truck was taking Vatican mail, including personal letters of Pope Pius, to the railway station in Rome when the incident occurred.

The Osservatore Romano, which recently started a special column in which are listed alleged anti-Catholic manifestations by fascists, said that fascist students burned copies of the Osservatore on Saturday when it published the speech of the pope to Italian Catholic University students.

The newspaper said that students gathered in front of Rome University cried "Down with the pope! Death to the pope!" and set the papers afire.

As a counter-move the newspaper La Voro Fascista started a daily column listing alleged Catholic manifestations against fascism. The newspaper charged, among other things, that parish priests in several places openly prayed against fascism.

Acid-Burned Hands
Suffered by Edison

FORT MYERS, Fla., May 25.—(P)—Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, had the fingers of both hands bandaged today as the result of acid burns received last week.

Edison could not shake hands with visitors. The burns are painful, as the acid was said to have eaten deep into the skin, which is peeling off.

"Got a hold of bottle with the wrong label," was the inventor's only comment as he surveyed his handiwork.

The burns were received during his experiments to produce rubber from golden rod.

BODY OF "AMERICAN" IS FOUND IN SEINE

MARLY LE ROI, Seine-et-Oise, France, May 25.—(P)—The body of an unidentified man, believed by police to be that of an American because the initials "J. D., U. S. A." were found on a label in the suit he wore, was taken from the Seine here last night.

Although police first were inclined to believe that the man had met with foul play, a police physician said he thought the man had committed suicide.

There were two bullet wounds in the skull and it was believed the body had been in the water four or five weeks. A belt with 13 revolver cartridges was found around the man's neck and in his pocket was a woman's photograph.

The man was apparently between 25 and 30 years old, police said.

ENJOY FINE-CAR PERFORMANCE AT A REDUCED COST WITH THE NEW OAKLAND EIGHT . . .

an outstanding General Motors value

To our list of Oakland owners this year have come many motorists who have driven other cars—some higher in price—some lower—some about the same. Their comments:

Said a man who had paid more: "I'm getting the kind of performance I've always insisted on. The motor does everything so easily. I find a feature I've enjoyed in my former car—the Syncro-Mesh. It certainly simplifies gear-shifting. And I wouldn't have believed a car at such a reasonable price could be so well finished. No two ways about it—my Oakland is a good investment."

Said a man who formerly drove a cheap car: "Oakland gives me an entirely different kind of ride. For one thing, I feel as if a few dollars had smoothed away most of the bumps in the road!" (That comfort is due, partially, to deep springs, 4 shock absorbers, soft seat cushions, and rubber insulation at 41 points in the chassis.) "I'm even more pleased with Oakland's pick-up and speed. Talk about hills—this car doesn't ask for a running start. It walks right up, and that's what I call power!"

Said a man who had previously paid about the same price: "Oakland introduced me to motor car distinction that I thought was reserved for people with more money to spend. The Fisher body is a big advantage—seems so carefully built—sounds solid when you slam the doors, and shuts out heat and cold. The upholstery is my idea of real value, too. As for good looks, and a car you can be proud of, just ask my wife and daughter!"

Typical comments, these. We hear lots of them. But of course you have your own ideas. So, drive the car—give it a thorough test—just call any Oakland-Pontiac dealer.

THREATENED STRIKE DEFERRED IN JAPAN

TOKYO, May 25.—(AP)—The threatened strike of 210,000 railway men, with possible spread to include all classes of workers in Japan, was deferred and perhaps averted today by Minister of Railways Egi, who agreed to ask the cabinet to rescind a wage cut affecting 9,000 railway officials.

The government, however, was confronted with petitions of employees of all government departments, except army and navy officers, requesting that it abrogate the order for a reduction of wages of government employees receiving more than 85 yen ($42.50) monthly. Although included in the cut, the military officers did not protest officially.

HENRY NAPPENBACH, ILLUSTRATOR, IS DEAD

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—Henry Nappenbach, 59, an illustrator for the Hearst newspapers, died today of heart disease. His wife, to whom he had been married 45 years, died one year ago tomorrow.

Nappenbach, whose works signed "Nap," were widely known, had his luggage packed for a European trip. He had planned to tramp over the battlefields of France and paint a series of war memorials to present to American Legion posts. His only son, who was wounded in the World War,

A HEATER RIVETED LIKE A STEAM BOILER

Just as steam boilers and hot-water boilers are made pressure-tight by hot riveting and calking, so the Torrid Zone Steel Furnace is made absolutely gas-tight and dust-tight by riveting and calking. The smell of coal-gas is unknown in the home heated by Torrid Zone, and walls and draperies stay clean. Fresh, pure air is heated, humidified and circulated through the house, keeping the atmosphere as balmy and healthful as June weather on the shores of a sun-warmed lake.

Extra-large water-pans provide just the correct proportion of moisture to the heated air, insuring health and comfort.

Torrid Zone Steel Furnaces are scientifically constructed to save fuel. Greatly oversized heating surfaces and a long auxiliary smoke-travel chamber get every last bit of heat out of the fuel before the smoke goes up the chimney. In actual tests, the Torrid Zone burns from 10% to 30% less fuel than ordinary furnaces to give the same amount of heat. It saves from $30 to $50 a year in fuel-costs.

Special heaters are made for all fuels. These riveted steel furnaces last three to five times longer than ordinary furnaces. They are guaranteed for ten years.

The Torrid Zone is made by the Lennox Furnace Co., Marshalltown, Iowa, and Syracuse, New York.

WEISFELD ARRIVES TO CONDUCT DRIVE

Rabbi Israel H. Weisfeld, of Miami, Fla., who is in charge of organizing the south for the 1931 Mizrahi

RABBI ISRAEL H. WEISFELD.

Palestine fund campaign, is in Atlanta to direct the drive for Atlanta's quota.

The present campaign marks the first one conducted by the Mizrahi Zionist organization, the orthodox branch of the Zionist movement, on an independent basis, the organization having withdrawn from the allied drives in which it participated previously.

The local campaign is expected to continue for about 10 days. Funds contributed are utilized in assisting the rebirth and rehabilitation of a religious national homeland in Palestine, with emphasis placed on the preservation of religious thought, Rabbi Weisfeld explained.

Before coming to Atlanta, Rabbi Weisfeld organized campaigns in the cities of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida. Before undertaking to direct the Mizrahi fund activities in the south, he was the rabbi of a Miami congregation and a member of the University of Miami faculty.

Assisting Rabbi Weisfeld in the local campaign are Morris Freedman, president of the Atlanta Mizrahi chapter; J. Doran, H. Smith, M. Yudelsohn, Joseph Goldberg, Rabbi Tobias Geffen, Rabbi Harry H. Epstein and Cantor A. Lipitz.

Sunday Tennis Ban Vigorously Scored By East Pointers

Because children on East Point sometimes play tennis excessively on the municipal courts on Sunday, the parks committee of the borough council in a sweeping prohibition act had the nets removed from all the courts last Sunday.

And now the adult population, which can take its tennis or let it alone, has risen to a point of personal liberty and demanded a repeal of the committee's act. But it will have to wait till next Monday night, when the matter is to be threshed out in council.

Mayor J. A. Ragsdale is encouraging. He doesn't know of an ordinance which prohibits Sunday tennis, and he doesn't believe council will uphold the parks committee. And even the parks committee is willing to negotiate the matter. Dr. R. B. Callahan, its chairman, says he has had numerous complaints about the children. They are not guilty of truancy, neighbors say, but what is infinitely worse on Sunday mornings—they make a lot of noise.

"But the parks committee wants to give the citizens their wish on this matter as on all other matters," he said guardedly. And he added, "The removal of the nets is merely an experiment."

10 DEATHS CHARGED TO CHICAGO WOMAN

CHICAGO, May 25.—(UP)—Mrs. Margaret Summers, a motherly looking woman, gray-haired and soft-voiced, was locked in jail tonight when State's Attorney John A. Swanson learned she was the beneficiary in 19 insurance policies taken out by 10 persons, five of whom died in her home in three years.

"But I am not guilty of any crime," insisted Mrs. Summers. "These policies were taken out in favor of me by people who were grateful for what I had done for them."

The dead, who left their insurance to Mrs. Summers, included her husband, Thomas Summers; her 17-year-old nephew, Thomas Meyers; his father, Louis Meyers, and two roomers, Thomas Lannagan and William Riegan. All of them died in her boarding house since 1921.

MRS. KING'S CHAUFFEUR WOUNDED BY GUNMAN

Rubbin Smith, negro chauffeur for Mrs. Alex King, of the Biltmore hotel, was seriously wounded by an unidentified gunman late Monday night at Marshall's garage, 730 Peachtree street, a police report said. The chauffeur had just driven the car in the garage and was giving it a final inspection when a shot from a shotgun struck him in both legs, W. C. Nash, 75 Forrest avenue, manager of the garage, told detectives.

The negro's wife, Precious Jewel Smith, also a witness said the gunman shot through a window and that she did not see him. Smith was taken to Grady hospital.

Many Entries Are Received In Model Airplane Contest

Many boys in Fulton, DeKalb and Cobb counties became "air-minded" over the week-end as the result of the announcement published Sunday that The Constitution is going to give a $225 cash prize, to the Dixie Camp for Boys to the lad 16 years of age or younger who makes the model airplane which flies the longest time in a contest to be held at Piedmont Park either Friday or Saturday of next week.

The contest is set for Friday but in case of rain that day will be staged on Saturday.

All the mails coming to The Constitution office Monday brought entry blanks and letters of inquiry and numbers of boys either came to the office in person or telephoned for particulars about the contest.

In addition to the splendid first prize, the makers of the model planes which take second and third place in the contest will be given 30-minute trips aloft in one of the big passenger ships of the Curtiss-Wright Flying Service, during which they will be given instruction in air work by the company pilots.

The ten boys whose planes stay aloft for the longest time will be given a specially conducted tour of the big shops of the Curtiss-Wright base at Candler field, where planes are repaired and rebuilt. The boys who take this trip will know at its completion exactly how an airplane is constructed.

The contest editor was besieged Monday with requests from boys over 16 years of age for permission to enter the contest, but this could not be granted because they would not be eligible for the first prize, no boys over that age being admitted to Camp Dixie.

It was planned that the plans of the first of the three different types of model planes would be published in this issue of The Constitution, but they will not appear until tomorrow. Especial care is being taken by George S. Haymans Jr., who is supervising The Constitution's contest, in the preparation of the model planes which will be put on exhibition tomorrow morning in one of the big show windows of the George Muse Clothing Company.

Entries in the contest will be able to get the designs and instructions out of Wednesday's Constitution, and then go to the Muse store and view a completed model.

The designs for the other two types of model planes will appear in The Constitution on Thursday and Friday.

PANTAGES DENIED SEPARATE TRIAL

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 25.—(AP)—Superior Judge L. N. Turrentine denied today motions by Alexander Pantages and Jesse H. Shreve for individual trials and ruled that the two millionaires should be tried with William Jobelmann and Olive Clark Day, alleged operators of a Hollywood "girl market," on charges of conspiracy and violation of the juvenile court law.

Jobelmann, who dismissed his attorneys and was granted permission to plead his own case, withdrew his motion for a separate trial.

During a recess he said he planned to take the stand and "tell the whole story" of the hotel party here last October which resulted in the arrest of the defendants.

Elbert county citizens, is said to have occurred on the highway near here May 17. Mrs. S. F. Mayer

A dietitian of the Georgia Baptist Hospital, one of Georgia's leading hospitals—a graduate of Valparaiso University with a B.S. degree in home economics—Mrs. S. F. Mayer speaks with an expert's knowledge of the beneficial effects of grape juice. "In my work I have found Welch's to be of the greatest assistance. The energizing food material found in Welch's is easily assimilated by even the most delicate system. Such a fruit juice is tempting to the patient when nothing else would be accepted."

When you're tired

WHEN you feel exhausted after a busy morning... when the afternoon seems to drag... don't "munch." Instead, "drink a bunch of grapes"—revive your strength—and add not a single undesired ounce to your weight!

Non-fattening and slightly laxative, Welch's is the concentrated goodness of the finest Concord. No other fruit affords greater abundance of those vitalizing elements—mineral salts, neutralizing acids and fruit proteins—that the body needs.

In the highlands of upper New York state, soil, water and sun combine to create this delightful food-tonic which stays hunger and satisfies thirst. In Welch's you enjoy all the color, flavor and delicate bouquet of vine-ripened fruit, so rich many prefer it diluted with one-third to one-half water.

Give Mother Nature a chance to prove the efficacy of the world-famous "grape-cures" of Europe. Drink Welch's every day throughout the year and you will not need to worry about your health, your nerves or your digestion. For health-insurance, drink a bunch of grapes, but ask for Welch's. Only thus can you be sure of purest fruit juice pasteurized and bottled under rigid laboratory control.

SUICIDE ATTEMPTED BY JOBLESS BUTCHER

J. A. Sewell, 51, Shoots Self in Chest in Full View of Neighbors.

While neighbors looked on from rear windows, James Arthur Sewell, 51, of 415 Pulliam street, stood in front of his garage at the rear of his home early Monday night and fired a bullet from a .32 caliber revolver into his left chest. Doctors at Grady hospital, where he was taken, pronounced his condition to be critical.

W. E. Hyndman, of 421 Pulliam street, in glancing from the window of his apartment on the second floor, saw Sewell lift the pistol to his chest and shouted to him just as the shot rang out, he told police.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Green, who occupy a duplex dwelling with the Sewell family, were in the rear of their home at the time and on hearing the shot looked out just as the wounded man fell. Mrs. Sewell, who was lying ill in her bedroom when she heard the report, stated that her husband, a meat-cutter, had grown despondent over the loss of his job with Rogers, Inc., a week ago. A 10-year-old son, Joe Sewell, is out of the city she said. A daughter, Mrs. Eva Perry, lives at Richmond, Virginia.

Following a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith Monday afternoon in which LaRoy H. He is charged with sending the film through the mails and by express, Postal Inspector R. E. Barry appearing against him at the hearing. The alleged offense in connection with the seized pictures is said to have occurred January 20 and February 12.

CHINA NATIONALS WAIT REBEL MOVE

Government Prepares for Civil War To Uphold Chiang Kai-shek.

NANKING, China, May 25.—(AP)—Another Chinese civil war is to begin in a few days, with nationalist government troops lined against rebels of Kwangtung and Kwangsi provinces, was predicted tonight by Chinese political circles.

The prediction followed denunciation by Nationalist Chairman Chiang Kai-shek of alleged attempts by communists in the provinces to overthrow his government after his refusal to resign.

In a statement to the nation Chiang Kai-shek said the crisis essentially is one between the Kuomintang (nationalist party) and the communists. The latter are desirous of exerting influence in Kuomintang circles, thereby hoping to gain power within the nationalist government, which is subject to the direction by the Kuomintang.

Chiang Kai-shek said rebels are dominating the south China Kuomintang faction, causing it to rebel against Nanking authority. The government thus is forced to choose between accepting communists into the party or resorting to war.

Indicating the government intended to begin its campaign against the southerners without delay, military headquarters announced 60,000 troops of Chekiang, Anhwei and Kiangsi provinces are moving toward Canton. Hankow dispatches stated government military headquarters there assembled 50,000 to 100,000 troops within Honan, Hupeh and Hunan provinces, are to proceed against the south China rebels if needed.

MORRIS BROWN BOARD WILL GATHER TODAY

The general board of trustees and special workers in the campaign for Morris Brown University will meet today in the college chapel. Bishop W. A. Fountain, A. M., Ph.D., chairman of the board and chancellor of the denominational chain of schools in the state, will preside.

Among the problems to be considered by the board today will be the disposition to be made of Payne College, Cuthbert, and Central Park College, Savannah, which have been closed for the last three years. Discussion of means of meeting the requirements of the general educational board, New York, in its $41,000 gift to the school, also will take place today.

President Fountain today will make his annual report to the board of trustees, which will show that the student body is the largest in the history of the school, with more than 14 states, as well as South America, the West Indies and Africa, represented. Presiding elders and their district workers, pastors and special workers in the campaign drive for funds for the school, representing the first six months, will report in Big Bethel church tonight, when addresses will be made by Professor Solomon Clements, Macon; P. O. Powell and Rev. T. J. Davis, M. D., Savannah, and E. A. Dudley, Dublin.

INTANGIBLES TAX VOTED IN FLORIDA

State Senate Defeats Move for General Gross Sales Tax.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 25.—(AP)—The Florida senate today voted 21 to 14 for a tax on intangibles, but killed without a record vote an effort to turn the proposed tax on utilities corporations into a general gross sales tax.

The intangibles tax, listed at two mills, would be levied against capital stock or shares of business firms, mortgages and government obligations not exempted from taxation under the constitution. These were listed as "Class A intangibles." A tax of one mill would be levied against "Class B intangibles." These were defined only as "intangibles not listed under Class A."

Senator Anderson, Greensboro, who introduced the bill, estimated the tax would raise $500,000 annually. The measure was passed 20 minutes after it was called up.

A proposal for a general gross sales tax came to the senate floor in the form of an amendment offered by Senator Futch, Leesburg, to the utilities corporation tax bill.

This bill, sponsored by the administration and introduced by Sen. Adams, Crestview, at the request, he said, of Governor Carlton, would levy a tax of $1.50 on each $100 gross receipts of gas, electric, telephone and telegraph companies.

Senator Futch sought to amend the bill to make the tax cover "all firms," which he said, would make it a gross sales tax.

The amendment was voted down. The senate then voted 18 to 13 against placing the measure on final consideration today, and ordered it sent to the enrolling room. It will be on the senate calendar tomorrow for third reading and final vote.

Senator Adams declared adoption of the Futch amendment would "kill the bill, because it would make the measure so broad that it would not get support." He charged utilities companies which operated in this state had most of their property in other states, and "pay taxes only on a few wires and poles in Florida."

The bill would make the tax cover municipally owned power and gas companies. The senate voted down an amendment, offered by Senator Dill, Gainesville, to exempt this class.

FINNISH ACCUSATIONS REJECTED BY SOVIETS

MOSCOW, May 25.—(AP)—Assistant Foreign Commissar N. N. Krestinsky today handed a note to the Finnish charge d'affaires in Moscow saying that the soviet government "formally rejects" the Finnish note of May 16 alleging ill-treatment of Finnish minorities in Russia.

The communication, which addresses against "interference" by the Finnish government in Russian internal affairs. It says:

"The Finnish government's note of May 16 objectively supports the counter-revolutionary struggles of a negligible handful of kulaks (rich peasants) in the Leningrad region against adoption by the whole population of more advanced forms of agriculture and is an interference with the internal affairs of the U. S. S. R."

On May 19 the Helsinki government replied to a protest from Moscow against alleged anti-soviet propaganda in Finland and accused the soviet government of violating its pledges regarding treatment of Finnish minorities in Russia.

The note declared that in spite of the provisions of the treaty of Dorpat, Ingrians—Finnish inhabitants across the soviet border—had been deported after losing their rights of self-determination.

The note added that Russia would remove the causes of the present disquietude and agitation if she was really anxious to improve her relations with Finland.

'JAKE THE BARBER'S' LOOT SAID FOUND

CHICAGO, May 25.—(AP)—The Herald and Examiner said today that more than $2,000,000 of the $8,000,000 which John Factor, known as "Jake the Barber," was said to have accumulated in international swindles was found here by Scotland Yard operatives.

The money, the newspaper said, was understood to be in two large trust funds, one of them for $2,000,000 established in an unnamed Chicago bank.

Attorneys for the British embassy in Washington contemplated starting immediate action to attach the funds for the benefit of British investors who allegedly lost millions through Factor's stock operation, the Herald and Examiner quoted Franklin R. Overmyer, attorney for British Consul Godfrey Haggard, as saying.

Broker Denies Guilt.

CINCINNATI, May 25.—(AP)—Henry A. Reifer, Fort Thomas, Ky., and Chicago, former office manager of the defunct brokerage firm of Roberts & Hall, pleaded not guilty today when arraigned on charges of embezzlement, the result of the failure of the concern. He was released on $5,000 bond.

Chain Store Bandit Slain by Detectives

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 25.—(AP)—Virgil Gregory, 30, sought in connection with a recent kidnaping and robbery of a chain grocery store manager and his family, was killed in an exchange of shots with two detectives who sought to serve a warrant on him today.

The officers, Hubert Peterson and C. O. Fink, were cut slightly by glass as bullets from Gregory's gun struck their windshield. Gregory's car struck a tree and he fired at the officers as they approached. Both detectives opened fire.

Gregory's companion, Eunice Mason, of Memphis, was not hurt. She was held.

Gregory was charged with having participated in the kidnaping two months ago of R. K. Neel and his family. The two kidnapers waited at Neel's home until he came with receipts of the store, then forced him and his family to accompany them and held them prisoners overnight in a box car.

PREJUDICES DELAY TRIAL OF CROWLEY

Court To Call Double Panel of Veniremen To Find Neutral Jurors.

MINEOLA, N. Y., May 25.—(AP)—So many men of Nassau county expressed prejudice in the case of Francis Crowley today that County Judge Lewis J. Smith had to adjourn the murder trial of the 19-year-old gunman after only three jurors had been picked.

Tomorrow a double panel of 100 veniremen will be called in an effort to find nine others to try the youth for the slaying of Patrolman Frederick Hirsch. The policeman was shot down when he approached an automobile in which Crowley was sitting with 16-year-old Helen Walsh. The two were captured later in an uptown Manhattan apartment after an gunfight and siege of 200 policemen.

The confessed "cop killer" sat chewing gum and smiling between two burly guards during the parade of prospective jurors. Again and again this exchange took place between veniremen and District Attorney Edwards:

"Have you read about this case?" "Yes."

"Have you formed any opinion as to guilt or innocence?"

"And it would take evidence to remove that opinion."

"Yes."

F. J. FREDERICK DIES IN MARSHALLVILLE

Aged Macon County Board Chairman Succumbs to Stroke.

MARSHALLVILLE, Ga., May 25.—(AP)—F. J. Frederick, chairman of the board of Macon county commissioners and for years a leading figure in middle Georgia, died suddenly at his home here this morning while under examination by his physician. He was 70 years of age.

Mr. Frederick, who suffered a recent illness which led to amputation of a leg, was thought to have recovered. He complained of feeling badly on arising this morning, however, and sent for the doctor.

While the physician was preparing to take his blood pressure the elderly man suddenly suffered a stroke. A moment later he was dead, from what was diagnosed as a blood clot on the brain.

Mr. Frederick had been a member of the board of commissioners a number of years, had been president of the bank at Fort Valley, director of the Citizens Bank of Marshallville, representative of Macon county in the state legislature and in addition operated large interests here.

His two sons, F. J. Jr. and Claire Frederick, are in north Georgia, as are his daughter, Mrs. Walter Fortson of Athens. Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending their return.

M. Y. ARNOLD TRIALS SET FOR NOVEMBER

Macon, Ga., May 25.—(AP)—Trials of Orlando J. May, vice president of the defunct First National bank of Sandersonville, and I. W. Arnold, cashier of the closed bank, were postponed until the November term of federal court here Monday by Judge Bascom S. Deaver, at the request of W. A. Boote, United States district attorney.

When May's trial was called, the continuance was asked on the ground that several government witnesses were absent. It was also pointed out that a heavy docket of prohibition cases had been assigned for the week. The prohibition cases, it was said, were of long standing and could not be reached until November if the bank trials were held, as it was expected that the May and Arnold hearings would require the entire week.

ABBEVILLE, Ga., May 25.—(AP)—Ed Blalock, 36, was in the county jail here Monday charged with the killing Sunday night of Charles Herndon, 30, in the Davis mill district of the county. A coroner's jury placed a charge of murder against Blalock and he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Max Smith.

Mr. Herndon was told that his young son, Barney Herndon, was at a "drunken party" near Blalock's home, and was having "some trouble" with Blalock, according to the testimony.

Mr. Herndon went to the place of the "party," it was said, and told him he was "getting tired of the whiskey drinking and other things that were going on in the settlement."

In his statement to the coroner's jury, Blalock said Herndon drew a pistol and snapped it in his face three times, and that he, Blalock, drew his own gun in self-defense and shot Herndon three times in the face at close range.

A pistol was found about 10 feet from Herndon's body, it was reported, but evidence showed the cartridges had not been snapped. Testimony was introduced to prove the pistol did not belong to Mr. Herndon.

There were found 194 prisoners confined in 113 cells. The grand jury also recommended the erection of a new junior high school.

HEAVY BUDGET CUT MADE IN CHATHAM

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 25.—(AP)—A reduction of $203,304.19 in the county budget for 1931 compared with that of 1930 was revealed in the report made public Monday by the board of county commissioners.

The estimated county revenues for all sources is placed at $1,049,916.73 and the budget provides for expenditures of $1,052,612.36. This latter compares with $1,212,000.55 in 1930. The actual expenses of the county in 1930 totaled $1,169,507.94.

There is due the county this year a total of $250,000 in unpaid taxes, said Chairman G. W. Tiedeman, as of January 1, and the returns of property values indicate a decrease of $2,000,000, which has reduced the anticipated income. JAIL BREAK IS FOILED BY SAVANNAH GUARD

Five Prisoners Are Halted in Corridor After Unlocking Individual Cells.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 25.—(AP)—Slipping a key out of a comb and making a sham bolt nut from a piece of soap, five state prisoners in county jail early Sunday morning attempted a jail break, which was frustrated when a guard discovered their ruse. The men succeeded in unlocking individual cell doors, gaining entrance to the main corridor of the jail, but their plans were frustrated when their feet were hooked off in the lock at the end of the corridor.

The prisoners made an effort to carry on by calling to a guard to come inside and lock them up. The guard, however, called assistance and the men were returned to cells.

The five men in the attempted delivery were: James Wright, serving six months for larceny of an automobile; Frank Garrett, four to seven years, from Carroll county; Charlie Newsome, one year for larceny of an automobile; James Armstrong, one year for larceny of an automobile, and Charles J. Williams, five to ten years on a charge of burglary.

Wright and Garrett escaped to either from the Tybee camp several months ago and were recaptured in Brunswick.

"A DIME BUYS A COUPLE OF FISTFULS!"

Roll your own—
SEE what you smoke!

GET this straight, men. The number of cigarettes you can make from a package of Target Tobacco is just nobody's business but yours. And what smokes!

"Not the old-fashioned dried-up tobacco chips, but real professional tobacco. Target's a blend of fine Turkish, Burley and Virginia tobaccos. They taste just like the ready-mades you've been smoking. They're long cut, so the tobacco won't roll out the ends.

"And you get two packs of Target cigarette papers free with every package. They're specially gummed so they don't bust apart. Take a tip from me—try Target today. It comes wrapped in moistureproof Cellophane, so it stays fresh. It's a real hot idea in roll-your-own cigarettes."

AND GET THIS!

The United States Government tax on 20 cigarettes amounts to 6c. On 20 cigarettes you roll from Target Tobacco the tax is just about 1c. No wonder you get such value for a dime!

BROWN & WILLIAMSON TOBACCO CORP., Louisville, Ky.

HOW TO ROLL 'EM BETTER THAN READY-MADES!

Treat yourself to the inexpensive Target roller. Your dealer will demonstrate. It's the swiftest little cigarette maker you ever saw. You can roll rounder and better cigarettes than ready-mades.

HOW TO ROLL 'EM BETTER THE GOOD OLD WAY!

Shake a little Target tobacco on a Target cigarette paper. Target's long cut. It rolls even the full length of the cigarette. Tuck in the paper and roll with both thumbs toward the gummed edge.

MELLON'S VIEWS ON TAXES RAPPED

Couzens and Borah See Ulterior Motives in Secretary's Speech.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—Secretary Mellon's discussion of federal tax remedies drew fire today from senate republican independents and democrats.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, said in Mr. Mellon's radio speech Saturday night a move toward extending the income tax to the lower incomes. He declared this to be "on the same principle as the lowering of wages."

Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, of the finance committee, said the Mellon speech was "an obvious attempt to sustain the evident intention of the administration not to have a tax raise at the next session."

He called for a balancing of the budget and said nothing can stand in the way of a tax increase next session "except playing politics with the treasury."

Senator Hull, democrat, Tennessee, a veteran on revenue legislation, took the treasury to task for failing to take steps for revision of the taxes when the business depression first set in.

Both Senators Hull and Couzens predicted the accumulated deficit for the government would reach $2,000,000,000 by the end of another fiscal year.

Meanwhile, Secretary Mellon announced that tenders for $80,000,000 in treasury bills would be received by the treasury next Thursday, bringing to $2,300,000,000 the amount of securities issued by the government since March 15.

The bills will be sold to the highest bidder and redeemed at face value in 91 days.

Mellon, in a radio speech Saturday night, suggested that the tax system should be revised to provide a more regular flow of income. Indications grew today that treasury officials were watching closely the government's finances and probably would determine late next fall whether to recommend to congress that the revision be undertaken at that time.

Senator Borah said in his statement:

"It seems to be understood that the secretary has in mind the broadening of the base for the income tax, the lowering of the exemptions. That supposition is based upon the statement in his address calling attention to the fact that out of 120,000,000 people, 380,000 pay 97 per cent of the total amount received from individual income taxes."

"In my judgment, the lowering of the exemptions and the taxing of the smaller incomes is on the same principle as the lowering of wages. Both would have the effect of reducing still further the purchasing power of the great body of people."

"We are committed to the proposition, and wisely so, of lowering the wage scale. We believe that to do so would still further reduce the purchasing power of our people. This would be equally true in the matter of lowering the exemption and laying a tax upon small incomes."

Senator Couzens challenged the contention of Secretary Mellon that the treasury had recommended revision in the tax law. He also complained that Mr. Mellon after accepting credit for the past surpluses and tax reductions "is trying now to pass the buck to congress."

Honored at a farewell dinner Monday night by the commission, medical staff and nurses of the Georgia Baptist hospital on the eve of his departure to assume the duties of Grady hospital superintendent June 1, J. B. Franklin (right), superintendent of the Georgia Baptist hospital for the past four years, was the recipient of numerous testimonials of affection and esteem. A. J. Orme (left), member of the hospital commission, was one of the principal speakers of the occasion, and between the two appears the handsome silver pitcher and goblet set presented Mr. Franklin by the medical staff of the hospital. Staff photo by Bill Mason.

Warm tribute was paid J. B. Franklin, who retires as superintendent of Georgia Baptist hospital on June 1 to assume similar duties at Grady hospital, at a farewell dinner tendered him at 6:30 o'clock Monday night in the main dining hall by the medical and nursing staffs of the institution, with which he has been connected for the last four years.

A handsome silver pitcher and goblet set, presented on behalf of the medical staff, sterling sugar and cream containers, offered by members of the hospital commission, and basket of roses, gifts of staff, student and alumnae nurses, evidenced the affection in which Mr. Franklin is held by his associates, and served to bid him goodspeed and success in the assumption of his new duties.

At the conclusion of the dinner and just prior to the remarks which prefaced presentation of the various gifts, Mr. Franklin made a brief address in which he called attention to the splendid co-operation which he had always received from the hospital commission, the medical staff and the nursing staff. Continuing, he presented the gathering W. D. Barker, former superintendent of the Noyes Baptist hospital at St. Joseph, Mo., and his successor at the Georgia Baptist.

"All things in time come to an end," said Mr. Franklin, "and for these past four years I have been merely paving the way here for an able man than myself. I regard Mr. Barker as possessed of both the medical and business viewpoints essential the borough council at its meeting Thursday night and ask that the committee cite Anderson and Blair for bravery. Anderson, attempting to overpower the armed negro, was shot and wounded in the left hand before he and Blair fired into the negro's body.

BEAVERS-POOLE DISPUTE RENEWED IN BANDIT CASE

No Funds for Medals. Chief Beavers said that the police department has no funds to provide bravery medals for officers upon whom the committee may wish to bestow them.

"In times past the members of various police committees have gone into their own pockets and provided funds to place a medal upon a deserving member of the department, and I personally am willing to contribute a share toward honoring Anderson and Blair."

The negro was shot and killed after he had been observed hiding in vacant garage in the rear of 368 Ponce de Leon avenue. Shortly after he had been killed several victims of recent holdups identified him as bandit, while Monday additional hold-up victims identified the body.

Detective Anderson, who was given emergency treatment for his wounded hand, was reported to be in excellent condition Monday. He reported for duty Monday night with the hand in a bandage.

"I'm glad it was my left hand he got," Anderson said. "I'm still able to shoot bandits with the other hand if I find it necessary."

SHIP CAPTAIN'S TRIAL ENTERS SECOND WEEK

MOBILE, Ala., May 25.—(AP)—The trial of Captain John G. Murphy, Mobile ship owner, on a charge of conspiracy to scuttle the steamship Rose Murphy which sank in the Florida straits in 1927, entered its second week today with the defense still offering testimony. Indications are that the case will not go to the jury before Wednesday.

The outstanding testimony offered by the defense today was that of Louis B. Poelle, first officer on the Rose Murphy, when she went down. Poelle testified he was asleep and was awakened by a shock, which he at first thought was probably due to a heavy sea breaking over the vessel. He testified positively that the jar which awoke him was not caused by reversing the engine of the ship. He declared he had been a seaman for about 27 years and was well acquainted with the handling of steamships and that he could tell when the engine was reversed.

That government is contending that the vessel was not a money maker for the defense is that he wished to have her destroyed and conspired with Womson, the master; James A. Fulford, chief engineer; Orice Roddy, second engineer, and Salvador Martinez, oiler, to cast her away.

WARNERS WILL CUT COST OF OPERATIONS

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—An economy program is under consideration by Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., Harr M. Warner, president of the company, said today and its details will be decided upon within a day or two.

Reports that a general salary cut of 20 per cent would be instituted were called to Warner's attention. His only comment was that economies would be in keeping with those of other companies in the industry.

Such a reduction would amount to about $100,000 a week, it is estimated. Warner said that it was unlikely that prices of admission to Warner Brothers theaters would be reduced.

5 ATLANTANS HURT AS CAR OVERTURNS

Persons Injured in Crash Near Kennesaw Are Reported Improved.

Five Atlantans, injured early Monday morning when a motor car in which they were returning from Chattanooga executed a triple somersault on a sharp curve near Kennesaw, were reported recovering rapidly at the Marietta hospital Monday night.

Miss Lucy Dunlap, the most seriously hurt of the quintet, was reported to have received several broken ribs and a wrenched back. Physicians said that while her condition is serious, she will recover from her injuries.

H. S. Zerbst and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dabney, who received severe cuts and bruises, still were confined to the hospital but will be released in a day or two, doctors said. C. H. King, a fifth member of the party, was injured only slightly and was discharged from the hospital after being given emergency treatment.

Zerbst who was driving, said he lost control of the car as he rounded a dangerous curve and that it catapulted from the highway. The auto was badly damaged.

TWO ARE ACQUITTED IN 1930 CLUB RAID

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—(AP)—Two employees of the fashionable Philadelphia Cricket Club, arrested for violating the liquor laws after a raid on the club by police a year ago, were acquitted by a jury today. A third employee was placed on probation for a year and ordered to pay the costs of prosecution.

The men acquitted, Robert Trimble, 41, steward, and John Matakich, 33, a waiter, had been charged with illegal possession. Philip Cifardio, 28, described by police as a bartender in the club, was charged with illegal possession and sale.

Former Stonecutter Wins High Honor For Bronze Statue

LONDON, May 25.—(AP)—Andrew O'Connor, a former stonecutter in Providence, R. I., has won what many consider the highest honor in the world for sculptors.

His "Mother of Sorrows," the heroic bronze figure of a kneeling woman, has been accepted for permanent exhibition in the National Gallery Millbank, better known as the Tate Gallery. He will unveil his bust of Lincoln in Providence on Memorial Day.

O'Connor, who years ago was glad to get a job chopping cherubs on tombstones, is the first American sculptor to be so honored. A few years ago he became the first American sculptor to win a medal at the Paris salon, and for achieving that honor was made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

The "Mother of Sorrows," though it will stand through the centuries as a complete artistic conception, is in reality but a fragment of a gigantic war memorial O'Connor planned for erection at Washington, D. C. The rest of the memorial, including another kneeling figure and a wounded soldier, has not yet gone beyond the clay stage.

GEORGIA WILL TAX 'OUTSIDE' TRUCKS

Business Carriers Must Pay for Privileges, Commission Declares.

So long as motor trucks bearing the tag of another state come into Georgia and operate for hire they will be required to qualify under the 1931 motor carrier act and to pay either a mileage or a flat tax to do business in this state, officials of the Georgia public service commission said Monday in connection with Ohio's retaliatory action against Donnie Brothers—formerly Sparks—circus which has winter quarters at Macon.

As a result of Ohio trucks, operating for hire, being required to pay taxes and qualify in Georgia that state has announced a policy of requiring all cars bearing Georgia licenses to also pay Ohio taxes.

However, Secretary of State George H. Carswell has informed the Ohio authorities that the motor vehicle department of this state has nothing to do with enforcing the laws governing motor carriers for hire and has asked that it refund Donnie Brothers $323 paid for Ohio tags.

Georgia's regulatory laws are administered by the public service commission and the tax, other than the fee required for certification, is administered by the comptroller general.

LaSalle prices are now several hundred dollars lower than they were two years ago—a fact which many people overlook. The cost of LaSalle service—which you can buy on a yearly basis, for a definite and pre-determined sum—is much less than most buyers estimate. Finally, many forget that a LaSalle is kept and driven far longer than the average automobile—thus reducing enormously the item of depreciation. Actually, all things considered, it is more economical to own a LaSalle

V-8 than a lesser automobile. Won't you come in today—and let us prove this by facts and figures?

Mrs. McKenzie Named President Of Wesleyan Alumnae Group

Immediately preceding the tea which Group No. 4, formerly Group No. 1, of Wesleyan alumnae, gave Saturday afternoon at the High Museum of Art, in honor of the Atlanta Wesleyan Alumnae Association, a business meeting was held, with the following officers elected: President, Mrs. Harold McKenzie; first vice president, Mrs. Herbert Alden; second vice president, Mrs. Augustus M. Roan; third vice president, Miss Margaret Richards; fourth vice president, Mrs. Walter D. Phillips; recording secretary, Mrs. H. Ware Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. McNelly; registrar, Mrs. Carroll Griffin.

Mrs. McKenzie takes an active interest in church, social and musical circles. She was graduated from Wesleyan in the class of 1918, being president of the glee club during her senior year. The following year she took a post-graduate course in music, receiving her certificate in both piano and voice. She was formerly the president of the Carrollton Wesleyan Alumnae Club.

Mrs. McKenzie is a member of the board of directors of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs, as chairman of individual and artist members. In the Atlanta Music Club she is chairman of religious education in music and has created unusual interest in the singing and appreciation of hymns. She is also a member of the Fine Arts Club, and of the Tallulah Falls circle. Mrs. Carroll Griffin, retiring president, presented an interesting report, reviewing the accomplishments of the past year. At a recent meeting of the executive board, held at Mrs. Griffin's home, the constitution of the association was revised and it was voted Saturday to accept the following revisions: To extend the term of office to two years, with no person immediately re-eligible for office; to elect four vice presidents who shall be given specific duties, such as first vice president, chairman of schools; second, chairman of groups; third, chairman of publicity; fourth, chairman of hospitality and programs.

The groups shall be renumbered, in order that the graduates from 1931-40 may be in consecutive order. Henceforth Group No. 1 will include alumnae from 1895-1900, with Mrs. J. A. Metcalf, chairman; Group No. 11, from 1900-1910, with Mrs. W. T. Asher, chairman; Group No. 3, from 1910-1920, with Mrs. Warren Woodward, chairman, and Group No. 4, from 1920-1930, with Miss Merrill McMichael, chairman. Miss McMichael was presented the silver loving cup awarded each year to the group doing the most outstanding work for Wesleyan.

Mrs. Griffin emphasized the elaborate luncheon given at the Druid Hills Golf Club in January honoring Mrs. W. T. Grace and Mrs. W. D. Coleman, of Macon; the swimming meet held at the Atlanta Athletic Club in honor of the high school seniors of Atlanta; the participation of alumnae in the annual forget-me-not sale for the D. A. V.'s; the affiliation with the American Association of University Women; the recent entertainment at the Biltmore, honoring the alumnae secretaries who were meeting in this city and the presentation by Mrs. John A. Perdue of a handsomely framed copy of the grand seal of the Confederacy, to Wesleyan.

It was announced that $125, contributed by the groups, will be forwarded to Wesleyan for Alumnae House, which will be erected by 1936, Wesleyan's centennial anniversary. Members of the Atlanta club were interested in hearing that Mrs. Charles J. Haden has been nominated as a trustee of Wesleyan. Mrs. Robert G. Stephens, a former trustee, distributed the ballots which had been sent her from the alumnae office at Macon. At the conclusion of the business meeting, tea was served by Miss McMichael, Mrs. L. M. Roberts, Mrs. Travis A. Stephenson, Miss Rachel Johnston, Mrs. A. M. Roan and Miss Melissa Jack.

"Cognac for me. All well at home? Your wife and daughters? Quite well, I hope?"

"Thanks, quite well. Good of you to send congratulations on our silver wedding."

"Well, of course. And how did the firm signalize the event?"

"Good heavens! What's the firm got to do with it? I planted them with my old car and took a new one for it."

"Yes, of course. L'etat c'est moi. I am the firm, a Preysing may say. And how is your father-in-law?"

"Thanks, he's fine. Still enjoys his cigar."

"Lord, the years I've known him now. When I think how he began with six Jacquard looms, in a little bit of a place—and now! Marvelous!"

"Yes, work tells," said Preysing meaningly.

"Everyone talks of it. I hear you've built yourself a magnificent country house, regular castle, park and all."

"Well, yes. It's come to be quite a nice place. My wife's mad about it. Yes, we have a charming place now at Fredersdorf. You must come and see us."

"Thanks. Thanks. Very good of you. Perhaps I may have a business trip to put through—with expenses paid."

"After disposing thus of the amiable conventional amenities, they got down to the matter in hand."

"A bit unsteady on the Bourse yesterday, wasn't it?" Preysing asked.

"Unsteady? I should say so," said Rothenburger. "Bedlam is nothing in comparison. But since the boom in Bega the whole world has been crazed. Everybody thinks he can do business without security, but yesterday it broke. A 30 per cent drop—40. There are lots who are dead and don't know it. Whoever is holding on to Bega—have you any Bega?"

"Had. Sold it out at the right moment," said Preysing—lying of course in the usual and traditional style customary in business; and Rothenburger knew it.

"Well, don't worry. They'll recover again," he said consolingly, exactly as though Preysing's "No" had been "Yes." "What on earth can you rely on when a bank like Kusel in Dusseldorf closes its doors? A house like that! The Saxonia Company is among the sufferers, isn't it?"

"We? Not a penny. What put that into your head?"

"No? I thought it was. One hears all sorts of rumors—but if the Kusel smash hasn't touched you, I can't understand why Saxonia shares have fallen as they have."

"Nor I. Other textiles have kept steady that are far worse than ours."

"Yes. Chemnitz Manufacturing Company shares are steady enough," replied Rothenburger to this, without beating about the bush. Preysing looked at him. Eddies of blue smoke curled up between their two faces.

"Let's have it in plain words," said Preysing after a short pause.

"It's for you to put it in plain words. I have no secrets, Preysing. You commissioned me to buy Saxonia Cotton for all I was worth. I did—Saxonia shares for the Saxonia Company. Good. We put them up to a very respectable figure—184 was really a very respectable figure. They said you were bringing off a big deal with England. The price went up. They said you were amalgamating with the Chemnitz Manufacturing Company. The price went up. Suddenly the Chemnitz people threw all their Saxonia holding on the market."

Naturally the price fell. It fell out of all reason. The Bourse is a hysterical woman. I can tell you that, Preysing, after being married to her for 40 years. You lost money in the Kusel bankruptcy. Bon! The English deal has come to nothing. Good again—but all the same a drop of 23 per cent in one day is too much. There's something more behind it."

"To be sure! But what is behind it?" asked Preysing. Preysing was no diplomat. His question was foolish and clumsy.

"You know as well as I do. The Chemnitz people are calling the deal off. You've come here to rescue what can still be rescued. But what advice can I possibly give you? You can't force the Chemnitz people to love you. If they chuck all the shares they hold in your concern on the market, it's as good as saying: 'No, thank you. We have no further interest in the Saxonia Company.' The question remains—how to make the best of an unpleasant situation. Do you want to buy up any more of your own shares? You can get 'em cheap enough."

Preysing made no reply for the moment. He tried to think and this was no easy matter for him. General Director Preysing was an excellent fellow, correct, straightforward, of irreproachable character. But he was not a business genius. He lacked imagination, persuasiveness, and push. Whenever he was asked to come to any important decision, he floundered. He could not even tell a lie with any power of conviction. He produced only little feeble abortions of business lies. He soon began to slimmer and beads of sweat appeared on his upper lip beneath his mustache.

"If the Chemnitz people don't want the amalgamation, it's their business after all. They have more need of us than we of them. But for this new dyeing process they've got hold of, we should take no interest in the matter whatever," he said finally, and thought he had got out of it very cleverly. Rothenburger raised his 10 thick fingers in the air and let them fall again on the table just beside the saucer of honey. "But they have got the dyeing process and therefore the Saxonia has an interest in the matter," he said amiably.

Preysing had 10 answers at once on the tip of his tongue. But finally only one blurted out: "Well, we shall see. I'm having a talk with the Chemnitz people the day after tomorrow."

Rothenburger puffed out a cloud of smoke. "A talk? Which of them are coming? Schweinmann? Gerstenkorn? Smart fellows. You'll need your wits about you. That's a job for your father-in-law if you don't mind my saying so. Well, while there's life there's hope. I must let that be known on the Bourse. If it does no good it can't do any harm. Well, and how do we stand? Do you commission me to go on buying cotton shares? If there's no one there today to hold the market we'll see a regular collapse. You can take that from me. Well? And here Rothenburger snapped open his portfolio and took out an order form.

A flush had appeared between Preysing's eyebrows when Rothenburger made that tactless allusion to his father-in-law. He took his fountain pen from his pocket and after a moment's hesitation he signed the paper. "Up to 40,000 with a limit of 170," he said coolly. He showed that he was not a novice in the matter. "Up to 40,000 with a limit of 170," he said coolly. He showed that he was not a novice in the matter.

TARZAN, LORD OF THE JUNGLE No. 92

©1931, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

Tarzan, the king-ape, with the savage people of his tribe, was foraging for food. It was cool in the mid-day jungle silence and the apes were content and at peace with the world. Coming toward them, were three people, but the wind blew from the apes toward the three, so none of the great Anthropoids had caught the hated scent spoor of the Tarmangani.

In the lead was a wide-eyed Beduin. Another man tottered along with the aid of a broken tree branch. The third was a girl, whose strange garments of splendid stuffs were soiled and torn, but she carried herself with regal mien. The three were moving cautiously. It was the Beduin who first sighted the playful young ape who had wandered farthest from the great bulls of Tarzan's tribe.

Raising his ancient matchlock, the man aimed and fired. Through the roar that followed came a scream of pain and terror from the wounded "ba-lu." Instantly, the great bulls leaped into action. Hurling toward the two men and the girl, they came. Fadd and Stimbel turned and bolted, in their cowardly haste pushing Guinalda to one side and currying her to the ground.

The bull ape in the lead leaped toward the girl and was about to sink his fangs, when Tarzan seized him and dragged him from her, for Tarzan recognized her for what she was. The king-ape had once seen another Tarmangani "she" and had decided he would like to have one as his wife. Now began a battle royal between the two huge anthropoids for possession of the horror-stricken Guinalda, Princess of Nimbar.
